

Parking & Transportation Services is the one-stop shop for all your transportation needs.

Whether you need parking permits, alternative commute information, transit passes, event parking and transportation, or bike and transit information and services, we can help. For your convenience, we offer online ordering, or you can visit our office at 340 Bonair Siding from 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. For more information, visit our website at transportation.stanford.edu, send email to transportation@stanford.edu, or call 650.723.9362.

Stanford University is committed to achieving the goal of “no net new peak-hour commute trips” over the life of the university’s growth plan. Faculty, staff, students, and visitors are asked to make every effort to avoid driving alone to and from campus during the peak-commute times of 7:30 a.m. to 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.

We can help you plan your commute by public transportation, find rideshare partners, use the real-time Marguerite bus schedule, or learn the best bike routes in the area. We also offer rewards and incentives for those eligible to join the Commute Club.

This brochure summarizes the many alternative transportation options available to you. Consider an alternative commute and begin enjoying all of the financial, health, and environmental benefits available to you today.

These symbols, used throughout this brochure, indicate eligibility for our programs and services.

Stanford Commute Club

Join the Stanford Commute Club. Join thousands of Stanford commuters who care about the environment, who benefit financially by not driving alone, and who help the university reduce peak-hour commute trips, a critical goal in the university’s growth plan. It’s free to join, and you will receive generous member rewards.

Commute Club membership rewards include the following:

- Up to $282 per year in Clean Air Cash or Carpool Credit
- Reserved parking spaces for carpools and vanpools
- Complimentary daily parking passes for carpools
- Vanpool and carpool matching assistance
- Vanpool subsidy of $200 per month
- Commute planning assistance
- Pre-tax deductions for commuter checks, carpool permits, daily “scratcher” permits, transit parking, and transit passes (for eligible employees)
- $50 Refer-A-Friend rewards for recruiting new members
- Emergency Ride Home for personal emergencies
- Free Enterprise Rent-A-Car hourly car rental vouchers
- Up to $96 per year in Zipcar driving credit
- Commute Club events, drawings, and membership gifts
- Ability to purchase up to eight daily parking scratchers per month online and have them mailed to your home

Make a difference! Join the Commute Club.

Each time you commute using alternative transportation, you make a significant difference for Stanford, for your financial and physical health, and for the environment. Join today!

Restrictions apply. Individuals must live off campus, be required to be at Stanford at least 20 hours a week during normal business hours, be enrolled half-time to full-time (if a registered student), be required to have a Stanford parking permit to park at their place of work or study, and must agree not to purchase a Stanford parking permit (except daily scratchers, SH permits, or carpool or vanpool permits) during the time they are enrolled in the program. Those who drive and park near campus are not eligible for the Commute Club. Other restrictions apply.

Vehicle Rentals

Zipcar at Stanford. Zipcar is a self-service car sharing program with discounted Stanford rates and convenient Stanford locations. Receive a $35 credit when you join, and access Zipcars 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Rates start at $7 per hour, and gas and insurance are included. Commute Club members receive up to $96 per year in Zipcar credit when registered as a Stanford Commute Club Zipcar member. Learn more at transportation.stanford.edu/zipcar.

Enterprise Rent-A-Car at Stanford. Stanford faculty, staff, and students receive discounted rates. Campus residents enjoy $10 weeknight rentals (advanced reservations recommended), and Commute Club members receive free hourly car rental vouchers. For more information, visit transportation.stanford.edu/enterprise.

Emergency Ride Home

Thinking of using alternative transportation, but afraid you’ll be stranded on campus without your car in the event of a personal emergency? Register with the Emergency Ride Home (ERH) program, and if you have an emergency on a day you commuted to Stanford by alternative transportation, we will arrange for a taxi or rental car to get you home. Commute Club members are automatically enrolled. For details and program restrictions, visit transportation.stanford.edu/erh.

Freshman Emergency Ride Home

Open to freshman students only, this program provides a ride back to campus (up to three times per year) in the event of an emergency. To qualify for this program, you must be a freshman, be registered in advance with the program, and have a covered, verifiable need.

Examples of covered needs include the following:

- A situation where you had a ride home, but your ride left without you (within an eight-mile radius of campus)
- A time when you’ve missed the last Marguerite back to campus
- A minor accident or injury where you need to go to the Stanford Hospital or Vaden Health Center (for emergencies, call 911)

For details and to register, visit transportation.stanford.edu/frosh_erh.

Bicycle Program

Approximately 23 percent of Stanford faculty, staff, and students commute to Stanford primarily by bike, and many of our resident students use bicycles as their main form of transportation. Bicycling is an economical, healthy, and environmentally responsible mode of transportation.

For assistance with bike friendly routes to and from campus and information on our bike buddy program, send an email to bike-information@stanford.edu.

Visit transportation.stanford.edu/bike for more information:

- Bicycle safety, “rules of the road,” and free bike safety classes
- Bike helmet discounts
- Bike registration and bike maps
- Bike and clothes locker rentals and shower locations
- More than 13,000 bicyclists on campus daily

Marguerite Shuttle

Stanford’s free Marguerite shuttles will take you around campus, to neighboring communities for lunch or errands, and to connections with Caltrain and other transit systems. Ride the Marguerite between 6 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. on weekdays. Extended late-night and weekend service operates from mid-September through mid-June.

Marguerite shuttles offer the following features:

- Fueled by biodiesel, with two diesel-electric hybrid buses
- Wheelchair accessible and equipped with bike racks
- Free and open to the public

See the location of your bus in real time! Visit marguerite.stanford.edu for live service information, maps, and schedules.

Stanford Ridematching Services

Want to explore a great way to improve your commute while saving time and money? Register with Zimride at Stanford and the Stanford 511 ridematching program to find other Stanford people who want to share your commute by carpool, vanpool, and/or bicycle. Register today at transportation.stanford.edu/ridematch.

Zimride at Stanford is a ridematching service for one-time rides or ongoing carpools among Stanford affiliates. Register for free at zimride.stanford.edu.

Charter Services

Parking & Transportation Services offers convenient charter services for campus activities and events at below-market rates for the campus community. Choose from a variety of bus sizes, vans, and town cars with courteous drivers to provide local shuttle services, field trips, VIP transportation, weekend trips, and more. For more information or an estimate online, visit transportation.stanford.edu/charterbus.

Parking Permits

If you must drive to campus, you’ll need to purchase a daily, short-term, or long-term parking permit and display it on your vehicle during permit enforcement hours. Permits can be purchased online by visiting our website, by mail order, by fax, or in person at Parking & Transportation Services. Visit parking.stanford.edu for more information.

Pre-tax payroll deduction for parking permits is available to benefits-eligible employees who work 20 hours or more per week and are paid through Stanford University or Stanford Hospital and Clinics payroll. University employees can order “A” or “C” scratchers online through payroll deduction. Learn more at transportation.stanford.edu/payrolldeduction and order online at transportation.stanford.edu/orders.

Visitors can prepay for daily parking at Parking & Transportation Services by purchasing daily “scratchers” that can be used at any metered space or visitor parking area. Alternatively, pay on-site at one of the designated visitor parking lots and parking structures.

Need help with transportation or parking for an event? Contact eventparking@stanford.edu for help planning your event parking or charterbus@stanford.edu for information on charter bus and shuttle services.
