Informed consent, waiver and release of liability

As a voluntary participant in the Emergency Ride Home program (ERH), I understand that my participation does not in any manner imply that on acceptance of a ride from the ERH I am acting in the course and scope of official Stanford business, nor does it establish an employer-employee or an agency relationship between Stanford and the service provider.

I assume full legal and medical responsibility for all costs and expenses including risk of injury or loss, including death or serious bodily harm, and/or loss of property and income that may result from my participation in this program.

I agree not to sue or bring claim against Stanford, its trustees, directors, officers, agents or employees, by reason of any accident, illness, injury, loss or death that is caused by or alleged to be caused by my participation in this program. The terms of this release shall serve as a release and assumption of risks for my heirs, executors, administrators and for all of my family members.

We'll pay you up to $234
per year not to drive alone.

And if you carpool, you could park for free. Ask us!

Parking & Transportation Services is striving to make alternative commuting easier. We can help you plan your commute to Stanford, whether by public transit, carpool, vanpool, foot, or bicycle. Join the Commute Club, and we'll pay you $234 for commuting by alternative transportation – and carpools and vanpools can park for free! Contact us for more information at commuteclub@stanford.edu. Our Commute Club program was created to reward commuters for not driving alone to campus.
