EVGR Transportation Information

As Escondido Village residents arrive or return to campus, they may have questions or concerns about parking and transportation options during EVGR construction. We're here to help. We provide a wealth of information on our website, and we are just a phone call or email away (650.736.9923 or GoCarFree@stanford.edu).

transportation.stanford.edu/evgr

EVGR Car Free Club

Learn about our incentives program for residents who choose to live car free. Incentives may include:

- Free Zipcar membership and driving credits
- Online delivery service credits
- Ride-hailing and transit reimbursement
- Learn more about the EVGR Car Free Club

P&TS Maps

- Suggested parking options for 'ES'- and 'C'-permit holders
- Illustration of finished EVGR project
- Suggested travel routes
- Loading zone locations
- Walking times map
- Zipcar car sharing locations
- View maps related to this project

You will find even more on our website, including these topics:

Alternatives to Having a Car on Campus

EVGR Transportation — Frequently Asked Questions

EVGR Transportation Alerts / Archive

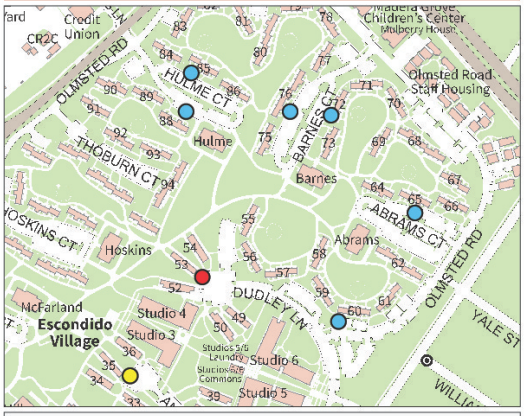
DID YOU KNOW?

Stanford has the largest university Zipcar programs in the nation, with more than 65 Zipcars at more than 20 locations. Reserve online or by phone 24/7 at rates starting at $5.50 per hour. Gas and insurance are included. Zipcars make it easier to go car free at Stanford.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY P&TS Parking & Transportation Services

Stanford Parking & Transportation Services | GoCarFree@stanford.edu | 650.736.9923

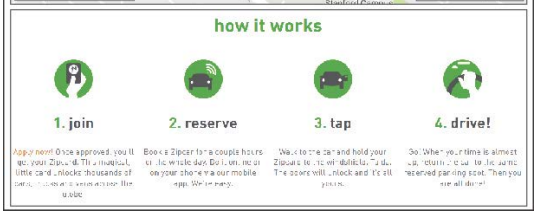
Escondido Village Loading Zones
Effective June 20, 2017

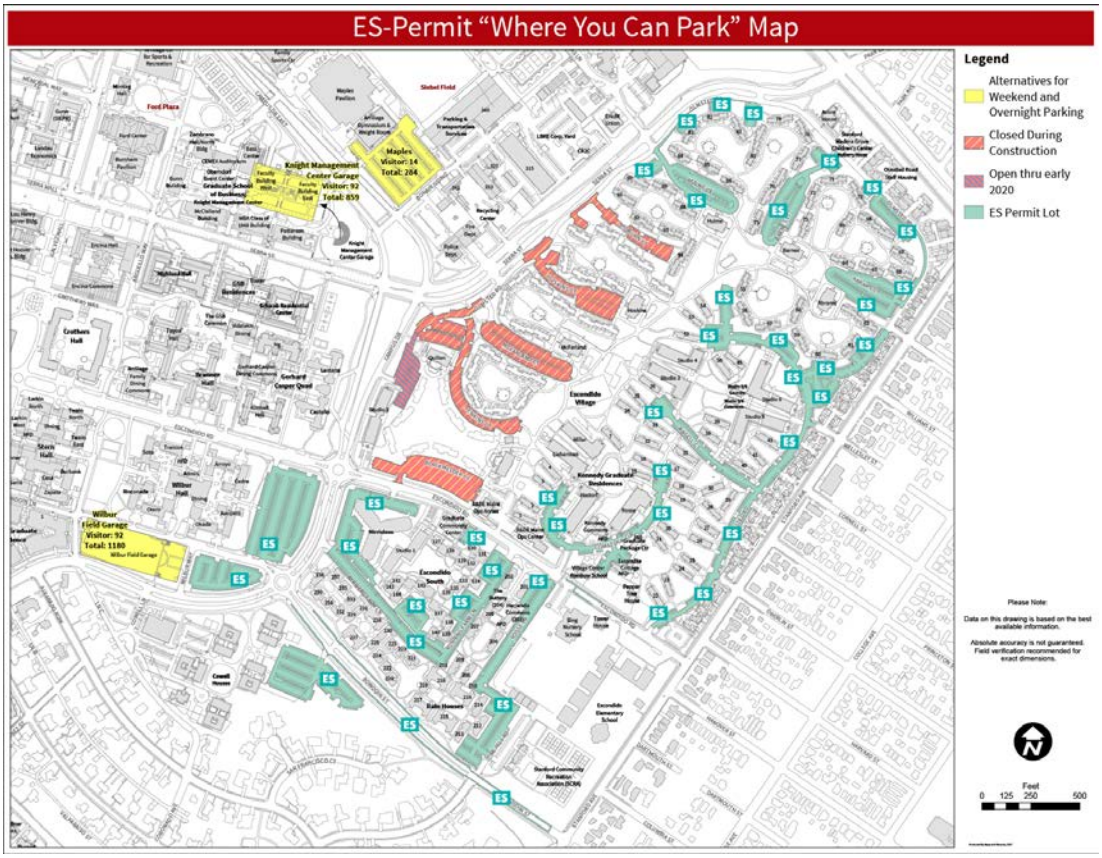


Vehicles may remain in loading zones for a maximum of 20 MINUTES.

	Enforcement hours	Eligibility
	Monday - Friday 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.	'ES'-permit holders
	24 hours, 7 days	Hoskins residents with 'ES' permits
	24 hours, 7 days	McFarland residents with 'ES' permits

Zipcar Locations
Near Escondido Village





ES-Permit "Where You Can Park" Map