AC Transit Line U

Line U provides express service between Stanford and the Fremont BART station. Other East Bay stops include the Fremont ACE/AMTRAK station (Centerville) and the Ardenwood Park & Ride lot in Newark. Line U service is supplemented by Stanford's AE-F and EB lines, which run between Stanford and the Fremont BART station.

Dumbarton Express

Line DB travels from the Union City BART station and Ardenwood Park & Ride lot to the Stanford Oval, with stops at Menlo Park, the Palo Alto Transit Center, and Stanford Medical Center (Roth Way at Campus Drive). Line DB can be an alternative to Line U.

Line DB1 travels from the Union City BART station to Deer Creek Road, serving Stanford Research Park and the Palo Alto VA Hospital. This line does not serve the Palo Alto Transit Center or the Stanford Oval; therefore, the Line DB1 schedule is not included in this guide.

Visit www.actransit.org for Line U, Line DB, and Line DB1 maps and schedules.

Free for eligible Stanford affiliates

Stanford faculty, staff, students, and hospital employees ride the Line U for free with a valid university or hospital ID.

- Eligible university and hospital employees ride the Dumbarton Express for free with the AC Transit Easy-Pass. For more information, visit transportation.stanford.edu/easypass.

Line U is operated by AC Transit in partnership with Stanford University. The Dumbarton Express is administered by AC Transit on behalf of the Dumbarton Bridge Regional Operations Consortium (AC Transit, BART, SamTrans, Union City Transit, and VTA). For AC Transit information, visit www.actransit.org or call 510.891.4700.
